Cheat Codes are common object of such games as GTA V, i Phone, xBox 360, Ps3, pc, laptop, and windows operating systems. My father was a high school chemistry teacher for 34 years in two high schools that spanned several villages in Pennsylvania. He knew how to make a nice pot of spaghetti and how to treat the kids to a great and cheap “tea party.” In other words, my father knew how to cook.

This pretty well describes me as well. I love good food, especially when it comes from the soil, like my grandmother's spinach, and I really enjoy talking to people about food. I'm a food journalist, specializing in food safety and nutrition. I love to travel and writing about food has been a real passion for me since taking that first food safety class in college. And that brings me to the purchase of a house. My house. I recently bought a house, in Edgemont, PA. The house is about 1,200 square feet and it is on two lots. And do you know what? The house is not connected to my neighbor's home. My neighbor is not my next-door neighbor. We are half a block apart. And here is what I love about my new house. The first problem with my new house is that all the appliances are connected to my neighbor's hot water heaters. The hot water heaters are under ground and are usually connected to a gas boiler but not always. The gas boiler is hooked up to my hot water heaters and the electricity. And I can't easily hook up my hot water heaters to the gas water heater. And I sure can't get my appliances hooked up to my neighbor's electricity. At least not easily. And I can't get my internet to work through my neighbor's cable, either. And this is what I really like about my new house. I like the fact that I can have a well water system and each of my four children
